Conditions Governing Applications for Readmission and Terminations of Leave of Absence

- If you have attended another college or university, please request an official transcript to be sent to your home college at Syracuse University. If a semester is now in progress, the transcript should be forwarded after grades for the current semester are available.
- If you wish new academic credit to be evaluated for transfer, please submit official documentation of the credit with your readmission application for review by your home school, college or graduate department.
